

Study Under Way To Determine Sewer Break Cause

Engineers of the St. Louis firm of Sverdrup & Parcel began this week a full-scale study of breaks in the 15-inch sanitary sewer line 13 to 15 feet under Terrace lane.

While excavation at the latest and fifth break in the line was under way last week an engineer periodically viewed the work, and confirmation was received at the firm's office Tuesday from the city for the study to be made.

John H. McGavock, principal engineer for S&P, said his staff will endeavor to assess causes and recommend a solution to Granite City's problem. However, because of the late start, it is unlikely even a partial report will be available for next Monday's council session, he said.

Mayor Davis called upon the firm shortly after the fifth break developed a short distance north of Clark avenue on Sept. 26. Council confirmation of his action was taken at the Oct. 2 meeting, when expense of the study was set "not to exceed $8000."

$161,000 Cost To Date
As of the Oct. 2 council session, repairs to the sewer breaks on Terrace lane had cost the city $161,899, and along with other sewer repair projects, may create a $150,000 to $170,000 deficit for the city this year.

Council members at the Oct. 2 meeting also voted for the engineering firm of Shepard, Morgan & Schwan, designers of the Namoli sanitary sewer system, to seek bids from two or three firms for a complete new installation of the 1250 feet length of Terrace lane at a higher level, possibly requiring an additional lift station.

It was brought out the depth of the present line and a change in the area's water table might have caused a shifting in the foundation of the sewer and that re-installation at a higher level, above the water table, might end the frequent breaks. Nearly a fourth of the entire line has been replaced through the current repairs which started early this summer.

The mayor and council are calling for a detailed report from the St. Louis engineering firm.

School Board Approves Hiring, Retirement

The Granite City school board Tuesday night hired Everett L. Moody, 2210 State street, as a Coolidge junior high school mathematics teacher. He holds a bachelor degree from Southern Illinois University.

The board accepted the retirement request of Mrs. Jeanette Wardlaw as a Prather junior high school cafeteria worker, effective Sept. 22. She has been employed in the district for 13 years.

Extent of benefits accruing to retiring school employees from social security and municipal retirement funds was discussed by the board.

Supt. Harold M. Kaiser reported the sudden death on Oct. 7 of Festus Cullen, head custodian at Stallings grade school. Before being assigned to Stallings, he had worked at the school board office and at Webster grade school.

Dr. Kaiser called attention to the annual homecoming football game and alumni luncheon, Thursday evening, Oct. 19, at Granite City high school.

Board Member Monroe Worthen suggested that thanks be conveyed to the Granite City Trust and Savings Bank for donating a new GCHS football scoreboard, and it was reported that the board has been asked to attend a ceremony dedicating the scoreboard on the night of the homecoming game.

President Robert Spangler noted that Jack Green had supervised the scoreboard installation, and Dr. Kaiser said he has written a letter of appreciation to Green.

Spangler said tickets have been obtained by the district for the board members and Dr. Kaiser to attend a dinner honoring State School Supt. George T. Watkins Saturday night, Oct. 25, in Edwardsville.

The superintendent reported that many trips to conferences are planned for school personnel this fall. Individual trips for short distances are approved by Dr. Kaiser, along with group trips for which only transportation costs are paid by the district. Where long travel is involved, or several employees are to receive full payment for expenses, advance approval is obtained from the board. Some of the meeting trips are reimbursed by the state, he explained.

Before beginning its regular session, the board discussed acquiring a school site but noted that no funds have been budgeted for such a purpose.

Parked Auto Damaged

The westbound auto of Wilbern Ward, 23, of 1902 Fifth street, East Madison, collided with the parked car of Richard Grider, 27, of 2119a Delmar avenue on Edwardsville road at Alton avenue at 2:45 p.m. Tuesday, pushing the Grider auto against a fire hydrant. Grider listed damage to the grille, hood and a bumper and fender.

Concert Association's 9th Season Will Begin Nov. 6

The Tri-City Community Concert Association's ninth annual season will open on Monday, Nov. 6, with the appearance of the Netherlands Chamber Orchestra at the Granite City high school auditorium. Concert Association President Robert D. Todoroff announced today.

Firm dates for three other concerts were also listed by Todoroff. Pianist Charles Rosen will appear here on Jan. 9; a male ensemble, "The Theatre Men," is scheduled for Feb. 26; and Soprano Beverly Bower will appear in concert on April 8.

The association will begin its fall drive for new and renewed memberships within two weeks, Todoroff said. Memberships are transferable. Members, who are unable to attend any one of the local concerts are authorized to permit other persons to make use of the membership card. Reciprocity agreements. As in past years, the Tri-City Community Concert Association will have reciprocity agreements with similar groups in Alton and Belleville.

The Alton association will present Baritone Robert Merrill, the Myra Kinch dance company and duo-pianists Parsons and Poole during its 1961-62 season. Pianist Leonard Pennario, dancers Goya and Matteo, the Cramer Opera Festival and Mezzo-Soprano Mary MacMurray have been scheduled by the Belleville concert association.

The initial attraction on the local association's schedule, the Netherlands Chamber Orchestra will be making its first tour of the North American continent this fall and winter.

porated places and in the county as a whole.

"It is estimated that in 1960, residents of the county's unincorporated areas spent approximately $70,000,000 for retail and automotive commodities.

"This was nearly $40,000,000 more than actual 1958 retail sales recorded for these areas, which means that inhabitants of the unincorporated sections do most of their shopping in the county's cities and at outside places.

Shopping Centers

"In very recent times, the commercial economy has expanded considerably through construction of various shopping centers. Although a number of them are situated in the far western extremity of the county, at least three are somewhat oriented to the unincorporated territory and are accessible from most rural areas.

"In view of the recent substantial expansion of the county's commercial economy, and others in the planning stage, for the near future there appears to be little need for any appreciable commercial developments in the unincorporated areas. Possible exceptions to this might be a limited number of gasoline service stations, and food and other convenience goods stores."

A listing of retail sales in Madison county shows $144,000,000 in 1958, or 84% of the $173,400,000 total for the St. Louis-Ilinois metropolitan area; $196,400,000 in 1954, or 95% of $206,500,000; and $236,020,000 in 1958, or 9.7% of the area's $2,388,100,000.

The $236,020,000 county sales in 1958 averaged $18,835,000 a month, led by September, October, November and December sales.

Estimated 1960 consumer expenditure in the unincorporated portion of Madison county amounted to $5016 per household, with $3244 for the 64% going for retail commodities (food, beverages, tobacco, home furnishings, home equipment and operation, clothing and accessories, recreation equipment and medical and personal items); $642 or 12.2% for automobiles, gasoline, oil, accessories, parts and supplies; and $1130 or 22.5% for services and intangibles (mortgage principal, interest and rent, home heating, utilities, medical and personal care, miscellaneous services and auto repairs, insurance and maintenance).

$1585 Average Spending

Average spending per person in the unincorporated sections last year totaled $1585—$803 for retail commodities, $178 for automotive commodities and $334 for services and intangibles.

HOME OWNERS INSURANCE. CALL REINHARDT.

It's residents is to obtain monetary returns, the magnitude of total income and the manner of its distribution reflect the degree of success achieved by those who are gainfully employed.

"It is roughly estimated that the county total of all individual incomes in 1960 ranged between $450 million and $500 million, of which $130 million accrued to residents in the county's unincorporated areas.

"For all Madison county, income per household in 1958 averaged out at an estimated $6540. In this regard, the jurisdiction outranked St. Clair county and the United States generally, but it was significantly below the average of the state of Illinois—$7313. The U. S. figure was $6385 and the St. Clair county average $6285.

"With an estimated 57.4% of households in the $4000 to $3999 income brackets, the great bulk of the county's families are in the lower-middle economic class, which is regarded as 'typically American'."

"If the 1970 population projection is attained, aggregate individual annual incomes may then approximate $600 million, provided the labor force is fully employed. Of this projection, somewhat theoretical sum, about $175 million would accrue to gainfully-employed residents of the unincorporated areas.

"All in all, the favorable future economic outlook for Madison county strongly implies that, in general, personal incomes and living standards are far more likely to advance than to decline."

Area's Employment Next Month Termed Steady

Quad-Cities area employment is expected to hold steady during the next two months, according to estimates released by the Illinois State Employment Service. The estimated November figures are to be slightly higher than those reported for September.

Employment at 80 reporting firms at the end of September totaled 15,342, down 217 from the same month last year but up 294 over the July total. Estimated November employment at the same 80 firms is set at 15,355.

According to information released this week by Malcolm Thompson, local employment office manager, 12,008 of the September workers were employed in manufacturing jobs and 3254 in non-manufacturing positions. A breakdown of the manufacturing jobs shows 10,581 in durable goods, with 1197 in non-durable goods.

Primary metal industries, with six firms included in the report, employed 9436 in September, 9112 in July, and 9249 in September 1960. Estimated employment in that field for November is 9460.

One Firm Reporting

Workers in the transportation equipment firm reporting totaled 1199 last month, down 526 from last year and 149 from July. The estimated November

In the non-durable goods field, a drop of 31 workers in food and kindred products since July was the greatest loss of employment shown. With five firms included in the report, 806 were reported employed in July, as compared to 777 in September. The November estimate is 774.

Employment in printing and publishing, and chemicals and allied products showed slight rises, which are expected to hold through November.

Construction Up

In the non-manufacturing categories, contract construction, with five firms reporting, showed an increase from 257 workers in July to 310 in September. The figure last year was 228.

Only other significant change was in the transportation and warehousing field, where two firms included in the report listed an increase from 63 employees in July to 80 in September. A total of 62 were listed last year, with the projected estimate for November remaining at 80.

Professional, educational and related services showed a rise from 289 last year to 375 in September, while federal government employment was down from 1159 in September 1960 to 1141 this year.

Versatility Is Key To GC Fire Department's Efficiency

Versatility — that's the key to the efficient operation of the Granite City fire department.

By keeping each fireman well-trained in handling all possible situations he might encounter when called to fight a blaze, specialization is avoided and each man is interchangeable at any time.

Men from any department can take the place of any other man, because we've made the instruction uniform. Assistant Fire Chief Curtis Donley, who is also training officer, points out, "It pays off in saving time and increased efficiency on the job."

To keep the fireman at a state of preparedness where they will make the proper response automatically to any situation, special training sessions are held at the main Granite City fire house at 2300 Madison avenue on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays, with all departments participating when possible.

Basic Firemanship
The training consists of basic elements of firemanship, repeated over and over, and includes hose, drill, life saving methods, placement and climbing of ladders, salvage of furniture, knot tying, rescue techniques and proper means of ventilation.

Accompanying the four firemen who were on duty Tuesday during a typical training session, this reporter found some of his Hollywood-inspired clichés about the inside of a firehouse disposed of in short order.

The shiny brass "sliding poles" were plainly visible, extending from quarters on the second floor to the ground floor where the two fire trucks and the emergency truck are parked. But during a practice run when the firemen slipped down the pole, instead of holding on tightly with both hands, they didn't even touch it with their hands.

Instead, the maneuver was accomplished by grasping the pole tightly with the legs and inside of the arms, because "the friction against bare skin would cause a burn," the firemen explained.

Anyone who touches the poles with his fingers quickly wipes the prints off with a handkerchief, but not to avoid identification by the police department. The brass will quickly tarnish from moisture and skin acids and must be kept highly-polished for best lubrication.

While Firemen Joe Holder, Don Parente and Harvey Smallie and Captain John Gyarmati were removing some canvas covers from a fire truck to demonstrate various ways in which they are used, Assistant Chief Donley dashed cold water on what he said was a common misconception about the fire department.

Firemen Compared To Police
"A lot of people compare the fire department to the police department and think we have a lot less to do than the police," he said, "but it isn't so at all."

Both play the waiting game with police riding around in squad cars for a call to action, while firemen are confined to the station.

During the day's training, firemen grabbed several 10x18-foot rolls of heavy waterproof canvas and quickly tossed one roll out on the floor. Within seconds an emergency stretcher had been made and a fireman was carried across the room.

Other 15-pound canvases were made into a stairway roll, which is used to remove excess water from floors above ground level and reduce damage.

"We use a squeegee if the water doesn't run out by itself onto the cover," Donley explained, "but of course we have to have the fire under control before thinking about removing the water."

The canvas rolls are also used to protect furniture from water which drips from the ceiling. Using a bedroom as an illustration, Donley pointed out that firemen place the dresser on the bed and other small items underneath, then drape the entire pile with canvas.

Rope And Knot Tying
Since firemen use ropes as a matter of routine, knowledge of a variety of knots and hitches are essential. Ropes are used to block off streets near fires, in rescue operations and to haul pieces of equipment up ladders. Manila ropes 75 feet long are standard at the Granite City fire department and are kept in rolls which can be unrolled with a single yank.

All firemen learn eight or 10 basic knots they can apply to whatever situation develops. Donley said, "and all are kinds that can be untied in a jiffy." Outside the station, firemen began to scurry. A mythical blaze had developed on the second floor and seconds were precious. While a pair of firemen hustled an aluminum ladder around to the wall, others were connecting a hose to a fire hydrant.

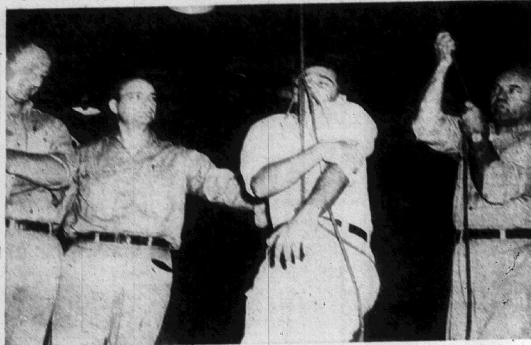

Normally two men would be needed to hold a straight line and direct it on a fire. Working from a ladder it would be a precarious, near-impossible maneuver if a special routine had not been developed.

Special Hose Fastening
The trick is to fasten the hose to the ladder at two critical spots with a half-loop like a snake's head coiled to strike between the nozzle where one fastening is made, and the rung of the ladder where the other is applied.

The result is comparable to the ease power steering provides in today's ultra-modern cars. A fingertip control of a powerful stream of water. One man can

WHEN BREATHING STOPS altogether or when a man has inhaled too much smoke and requires oxygen, Granite City firemen are called to provide care until the patient can be taken to a hospital. So each man learns proficiency in use of the department's resuscitator-inhalator devices. From left are Capt. Gyarmati, Firemen Parente, Smallie (prone) and Holder.

RESCUE SLING for lowering injured persons from burning buildings or hoisting them from below ground level depends on a special rope hitch which Granite City firemen learn to tie with their eyes closed. The sling provides support beneath the shoulders and hips. Holding the rope is Capt. John Gyarmati. Firemen from left are Holder, Smallie and Parente.

WATER SHIELDS are used by the Granite City fire department to keep smoke and heat from a blaze away from firemen working at ground level. The wall-like spray is formed by fitting hoses with adapters to direct the water upward and outward instead of forward. From left are Firemen Don Parente, Harvey Smallie and Joe Holder.

PROPER METHOD of carrying a fire hose up a ladder is demonstrated by three Granite City firemen at a practice session outside the main fire station. The hose is carried over the right shoulder so that in event of an emergency it may be quickly discarded. From the bottom up are Firemen Smallie, Holder and Parente.

easily direct the hose nozzle with the special fixed loop regardless of the pressure.

Incidentally, carrying a fire hose up a ladder is no offhand operation even when the hose is dry and empty. Usually three firemen will take a hose up, all carrying it on their right shoulder so it can be tossed aside easily in case of trouble.

Another drill with the fire hose was to construct a "water screen" which provides firemen deployed on the ground with a semi-transparent shield against heat, smoke and other fire-generated gases.

By placing adapters over the nozzles of hoses, firemen created a fan-like wall of water. And so concentrated was the spray that the gray-uniformed firemen could walk almost up to the "wall" without being splashed.

Then it was time for rescue review and a smile of contentment appeared on the face of the fireman who was selected to be "revived" by his comrades.

After the strenuous drilling of the past hour it was a welcome relief to stretch out on a blanket and feign unconsciousness. But it was strictly business as the other firemen rehearsed the steps taken when someone has collapsed as a result of inhalation of poison gases. The clothing of the "unconscious" fireman was loosened and his head and shoulders propped with a second blanket as an oxygen tank was attached to one of the department's resuscitators.

Proper methods of removing a victim's false teeth were reviewed during the dry run, which is necessary to avoid choking when the jaws are forced open by pressure at the base of the ears, the firemen demonstrated.

Then the mask was ready for application and, if the fireman had actually stopped breathing, the device would have literally breathed for him until he recovered.

Buildings Must Be Ventilated
In a second floor instruction room, firemen receive training in ventilation of burning buildings. Often it is necessary to puncture ceilings in partitions to release gases that could build to a flash point if not stopped, Donley explained.

"This amounts to as much good as putting water on, sometimes more," Donley tells the firemen. "One of the worst hazards of all is false ceilings and a lot of time is spent explaining where such danger spots exist in area buildings."

Here's what happens at the firehouse when someone reports a blaze of any size. The call is received by one of the firemen who records the address and instantly prescribes what is known as the "panie button."

This triggers electrical warning lights, opens the big firehouse doors, activates a siren and stops traffic at the critical 23rd street and Madison avenue intersection by holding the signal lights at the red designation. And the trucks and firemen will act on.

Firemen answer an average of one alarm a day.

Altogether 35 firemen are employed at the three Granite City stations, but they aren't on duty at the same time. The main station has 18 firemen on the payroll including officers, but during the summer the available crew is usually five men.

For a fireman leads an odd schedule — he is on duty for 24 consecutive hours and then off 48 hours, throughout the year. After a year on the department he is eligible for a two-week vacation. After 10 years, he gets three weeks.

$3750 Judgment In Accident Injury Suit

A city court jury awarded plaintiff Mary E. Warford a $3750 judgment this week for alleged injuries sustained on May 5, 1960, when she was struck by an auto as she stepped from the curb at 19th and State streets in Granite City.

The jury returned the verdict at 8 p.m. Tuesday after hearing testimony in the case on both Monday and Tuesday.

The plaintiff had asked $25,000 for severe and permanent injuries she said were sustained when an auto driven by defendant Edward Kendall struck and knocked her down.

The two-week jury setting is continuing today with City Court Judge Fred P. Shuman presiding.

In a lawsuit currently being heard, Wilbur Pryor is asking

$75,000 for personal injuries allegedly sustained when he fell from a ladder on property owned by defendant Lundy Walker, suffering permanent injuries to his back and feet.

The plaintiff claims that the ground on which the ladder was placed was not suitably maintained by the defendant, causing the ladder to sink into the ground.

GC Steel Co. Is Newcomen Society Honor Recipient

Before a record attendance of over 200, N. P. Veeder, chairman of the board and president of Granite City Steel Co., and his firm were honored by the St. Louis Committee of the Newcomen Society in North America at a dinner held last night at the Chase-Park Plaza Hotel.

A major steel producer today, Veeder recounted the history of Granite City Steel Co. from its tiny beginning before the turn of the century and cited two periods of "grave decision" when the company embarked on almost impossible expansion programs.

Under the late President G. Haxward Niedringhaus, the firm entered the continuous rolling method of production in the 1930s by assuming a cost obligation of $10 million when his word was only $12 million, he said. Later, during the presidency of the late John H. Marshall, a $75 million expansion was launched at a time when the company was worth only $44 million.

Fortunately, both these crises in the company's history were carried out successfully; the alternative would have been loss of markets to competitors, elimination of the plant and unemployment in Granite City.

Increased productive efficiency, contrary to views held by some, has increased employment. From a peak of 2,900 employees under the old method of production, the two moves to produce more steel with fewer men have resulted in employment of 5,000 men and women today, with an annual payroll eight times greater than the hand mill era.

Quoting one of the top regional Steelworkers Union officials with whom the company has been dealing for 14 years, Veeder said he remarked: "A company that doesn't modernize cannot survive. We have recognized that and both of us have prospered."

Plan Further Expansion
Granite City Steel Co. is continuing to grow, Veeder said, and has plans for still further expansion to meet the needs—and keep ahead—of its market, which now extends from Minnesota to the Gulf of Mexico. One of the direct local benefits of this expansion, he added, was the company's ability to attract A. O. Smith Corp. to build its automotive frame plant here, "the second largest company to move into metropolitan St. Louis since the end of the war."

The only producer of flat-rolled steel in the midwest area, Granite City Steel Co. also is one of the country's largest manufacturers of galvanized and corrugated steel roofing and siding.

As part of the company's anticipated further growth, Veeder said his firm has joined with American Zinc, Lead and Smelting Co. in the exploration of a large ore body discovered near Buchanan, Mo.

"We have just extended our market area eastward into Indiana and we are now waiting for engineering reports of several large deposits of iron ore which may decide the course of our next major integration and expansion," he said.

Referring to recent St. Louis newspaper articles and editorials urging establishment of a steel plant there to utilize Missouri iron ore, Veeder pointed out "for the benefit of St. Louisans in this audience" three reasons that make such a move questionable.

First, Granite City Steel Co. currently can give service and supply the needs of the midwest market area. Second, Granite City Steel Co. now is competing in this market area with other steel plants. Third, Granite City Steel Co. is "not alone" and not only is keeping abreast of present needs of the area, but can continue to meet these needs as they grow.

Gale F. Johnston presided at last night's meeting and Ted Cambie, of Pot Melt Co., one of Granite City Steel Company's first customers of tin plate, introduced Veeder. A number of Quad-City business, industrial and civic leaders were present.

Madison CD Training Registration Oct. 19
Registration for six types of civil defense training courses will take place during a public meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 19, at the Madison recreation center, Seventh and Lee avenue. It was announced today by Harry R. Johnson and E. A. Friedman of the Madison CD staff.

A large fall and winter training program is being planned, including such subjects as radiation, first-aid, disaster aid, shelter construction, police training and judo, and education for survival. An initial judo class, assembled last night at the YMCA, with 12 Madison auxiliary police members taking lessons from instructor Robert Dant.

Contact is being made with Madison industries as part of broadening of the current program, and an additional 25 auxiliary police members are being sought.

Area Births Top 1000 In First Nine Months

Quad-City area births for the first nine months of 1961 passed the 1000 mark, while deaths failed by one to reach a total of 300.

Vital statistics recorded at the end of September show that the 127 births last month brought the total in that column to 1002, while the 30 deaths brought that figure to 299. Two stillbirths were recorded during the month, making a total of 13 for the year.

As compiled by Granite City Clerk A. L. Stevens, the current figures are just slightly down from last year's nine-month total in the birth and death columns, with 1003 births and 302 deaths recorded by the end of September, 1960. Stillbirth total was the same.

For the month of September last year, the figures were 124 births, 29 deaths, and one stillbirth.

August has proved the most productive month thus far this year, with 135 births recorded. July proved the most fatal month, with 36 deaths. Four stillbirths occurred in February, highest total for any month this year.

A breakdown of the 1961 vital statistics to date follows, listing births, stillbirths, and deaths, by month: January—131, 0 and 38; February—110, 4 and 32; March—96, 1 and 22; April—108, 1 and 34; May—87, 3 and 45; June—91, 1 and 36; July—116, 1 and 30; and August—135, 2 and 32.

Contract Offer To GC School Custodians

A contract similar to that granted cafeteria employees was voted for custodians Tuesday night by the Granite City school board. It includes hourly wage boosts of seven cents in 1961-62 and an additional five cents in 1962-63.

Additional costs to the district would amount to about $10,000 this year and $17,000 next year, not counting increased costs of fringe benefits and contract changes already agreed upon.

The unanimous action, described by board members as a firm and final offer, was reported by Supt. Harold M. Kaler yesterday to representatives of Building Service Employees Local 98 and is being studied by the local. The contract is to be retroactive to July 1.

REA Moves Pose Grave Threat To Industrial Growth Of Quad-Cities

When the Rural Electrification Administration was formed in 1936 to lend funds for rural power lines, only one in ten farms had electric service. So, subsidized by the nation's taxpayers, REA provided this service—and did a fine job.

Today, just about every farm has electricity, thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Taxpayer, who paid the difference in cost. Miles and miles of wire were strung to the widely scattered, sometimes almost inaccessible, small farm users. Economically unsound of itself, this service was possible only because taxpayers everywhere picked up the very sizable "excess" portion of the tab.

But there can be too much of a good thing; just because one pill helps the patient doesn't mean that a hundred pills would be 100 times better. It could kill the patient. REA helped the farmers; it threatens now to "kill" not only the patient but the doctor (taxpayers) as well.

Not content with fulfilling its original purpose, REA in some areas now seeks to expand its role; to crawl to new heights of subsidized expansion over the bodies of the Quad-City taxpayers helping from the government (taxpayers) at 2%, it is less concerned with debt retirement than in building up excessive reserves. It even makes money by borrowing at 2% and lending at high interest rates.

That is bad enough, but a new gimmick is worse. REA is offering to lend 2% money to industrial plants for electrical machinery, purpose of which is to attract industry to their areas. This results in the paradox of Quad-City taxpayers helping to subsidize REA systems which, in turn, are trying to induce industries not to move into this community or even to move away from here!

Is it any wonder, then, that many communities, including the Quad-Cities, share a deep concern over this peculiar turn of events? And they are watching with enlightened self-interest the efforts of Illinois Power Co. to alert the public to what is going on.

The utility company is not asking for punitive measures against REA; in fact, it has publicly stated that it recognizes the value of REA's accomplishments in the rural areas. But it does feel there is injustice and grave economic danger to all citizens, as well as to those whose savings are invested in privately-owned utilities, if REA is permitted, without regulation or controls, to invade areas and compete for urban, commercial and industrial power customers already getting service.

IPC's position is that REA should come under the same Illinois Commerce Commission regulations that apply to it. This certainly is proper and eminently fair. It leaves REA subsidized and exempt from taxes, able to be "banker" to customers at the expense of taxpayers, uninhibited in the rural areas, but prohibited from expanding willy-nilly outside their original rural jurisdictions, without conforming to ICC rules set up for the protection of service to customers.

(Gillespie News)

What did our parents and grandparents do when hard times hit them and they had no taxpayers' aid to fall back on? Who took care of the old folks when there were no nursing homes? Why do we think other countries should live as we do, even though they don't wish to? Why do we try to support the world? But then why do we try to support everyone in this country whether they work or not? Why do we keep hearing more taxes, higher taxes, but never a word about economy?

Church Anniversary First Centennial In Quad-Cities

Centennial planning by St. John United Church of Christ cannot help but impress upon local residents the long history of their community. No cities of this area had yet been incorporated 100 years ago, but the rural population, primarily of German descent, was large enough in 1862 that a church was founded.

Names of the founders illuminate the Quad-Cities' link with the past, for many are still well-known—Brandes, Ruwisch, Pieper, Kahle, Meyer, Burdick, Storck, Harmer, Deterding, Bruene, Seebach and Wolf.

Anniversary activities beginning Oct. 22 and ending on the centennial day next June will bring many nostalgic recollections. The observance will mark the first, but far from the last, of 100-year celebrations in the Quad-Cities.

Legislature Should Validate County's Existing Tax Rate

The special session of the Illinois General Assembly, which convened Tuesday, should validate Madison county's 10-cent tax rate for several reasons.

First, Madison county has been operating in the black, with due regard to efficiency and service. To suddenly—and unexpectedly—reduce the 10-cent rate to 5.7 cents, as required by a Supreme Court ruling a few months ago, can only work to the detriment of taxpayers. Not only must service be curtailed, but interest would have to be paid on borrowed money—interest that produces nothing in the way of public services.

Second, approval of the 10-cent rate is not an increase; it merely continues the same tax that has been in effect for some years. There is, of course, always the possibility of a referendum to validate a 10-cent or higher tax rate, but this will not help the immediate need.

Third, the tax has been levied in good faith and paid in good faith. Why risk a referendum, which also is an expense, and the hazards of defeat or, worse still, a higher tax levy, when a simple act of the legislature can solve everything?

This is one of those rare instances in which the Press-Record, a staunch believer in referendums, is convinced that the public interest is better served by an act of the legislature instead.

Venice Program Can Enhance City's Appearance, Health

A three-point civic improvement program proposed in Venice can contribute to better health as well as a more attractive appearance for the city. There should be an excellent chance of success, since the Venice residents of the changes they would most like to see.

At least two law changes are anticipated. Present ordinances permit outdoor restrooms if connected to sanitary lines, but it is now planned to eliminate them entirely. The current weed control law also is regarded as out-of-date. Improved garbage handling is to be sought first through stricter enforcement of existing requirements; additional legislation is to be enacted if necessary.

Following new street lighting and other improvements, the program can help revitalize and continue progress in Venice. When both the citizens and their leaders desire such gains, there can hardly be any other result.

STEWARDSHIP TOPIC OF PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN
"Reason For Being" was the title of a film strip shown Monday evening as part of the October program of the United Presbyterian Women's Organization of the Nameoki Presbyterian Church, held in the educational building of the church. Mrs. Louise Anderson, program chairman, introduced the film, which illustrated the theme, "Stewardship."

Mrs. Alta Stewart, president, opened the meeting, with Mrs. Betty Elin, reading the purposes of the organization. The devotional topic on "Christian Stewardship" was offered by Mrs. Joan Kaseberg, who read the names of missionaries for the day and led prayers for their work and accomplishments.

During the business session, Mrs. Harriet Bull, a guest, was introduced and welcomed by Mrs. Edith Simpson, fellowship chairman, who also reported on plans for "World Community Day" scheduled for Friday, Oct. 3, at the First Presbyterian Church of Madison. Final arrangements for the annual observance will be completed this week, including a meeting at St. John United Church of Christ, Mrs. Simpson said.

Mrs. Violet Monahan, world service chairman, reminded the members of a cancer bandage project to be initiated on Oct. 17, at the home of Mrs. Joan Kaseberg, Rural Route 20, starting at 8:30 a.m.

A "retreat for women" Thursday, Oct. 19, at the church was discussed by Mrs. La Pyle, spiritual life chairman, who announced the theme as "God's People in God's Work."

Several members indicated they would attend the Fall District Presbyterian set for tomorrow at the East St. Louis Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Violet Jeffers conducted a dedication ceremony for items sewed by the local group, which participated in a nationwide sewing project. The contributions will be forwarded to the Sage Memorial Hospital at Ganado, Ariz., for use in the institution's missionary program. Mrs. Stewart gave closing meditations.

The remainder of the time was spent socially, with a dessert course served by Mrs. Janice Carr and Mrs. Monahan. Others attending were Mrs. Bea Pyle, Mrs. Louise Thompson, Mrs. Irma Taylor, Mrs. Ann Freeling, Mrs. Lena Kaseberg, Mrs. Lu Pyle, Mrs. Sylvia Marcum, Mrs. Martha Bowman and Mrs. Edith Arbogast.

The annual "Praise Service and Thank Offering" was announced as the program for the next general meeting Nov. 13.

FROHARDT PTA BOARD PLANS NEXT PROGRAM

The executive board of the Frohardt school Parents-Teachers Association met Tuesday evening at the school, with President Homer Johnson presiding over a business session. Berman, local pediatrician, will speak to the unit on the October program topic, "For Better Understanding."

Mrs. Mary Jessee was asked to serve as chairman for observations of National Book Week Nov. 12-18, with the use and value of books to be emphasized to school children at all age levels.

BELEMORE GROUP TO RESUME MEETINGS
The Belmore Village Civic and Improvement Association will resume its monthly meetings this evening at Frohardt school, starting at 7:30. Francis Hermap, president, has announced. All residents of the subdivision are being invited to attend, whether members or not.

Management Change of Meat Policy

For about the past year, we have had only one very high grade of beef in our cases. We now believe that you want a wider variety in the meat department, just as you do in other parts of our stores. (For instance, 26 sizes of various brands of Corn, 23 Pork & Beans, etc.) We will continue to handle well-aged, top-quality, very tender beef and are now adding a budget-priced good grade of beef which will be tagged at approximately 10c a pound lower. Signs on our meat cases will clearly show you where to find them quickly and easily.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD Thurs., Oct. 12, 1961 Page 23

Arrangement for the departmental economy conferences was made during a meeting of the council committee chairman last Monday evening.

The mayor has asked the council to consider either a cutback in all city projects, elimination of equipment purchase, layoffs of employees up to 30 in number, or a combination of the suggestions to reduce the forecasted deficit caused by heavy expenditures of over $370,000 for sewer repairs on Terrace lane, 20th street and Aubrey avenue.

Auto Fire, $25 Damage

A carburetor backfire caused a blaze which resulted in $25 damage yesterday evening to the 1952 auto of Francis Kelley, 2949 Warren avenue. Firemen were called to the 1800 block of Grand avenue to extinguish the fire.

79 Injured In Past Month, 592 This Year

Quad-City area auto accident injuries reached 79 during September—high for the year—and increased the 1961 total thus far to 592. This is the highest number ever recorded for the first nine months of a year.

In 1960, when the record of 805 area traffic injuries was set, the nine-month listing was 587. The present rate indicates 789 for this year, but the rate traditionally has increased in the fall and early winter.

Records of police departments, the sheriff's office and the state police district headquarters indicate a total of 143 accidents in this area for the past month. This has been topped this year only by the 158 in January.

Collisions so far number 1198, compared to 1237 at this time last year and 1206 in January-September 1957.

A projection of the present trend shows a grand total of 22 Fatalities

One fatality was recorded during the month just ended.

Lloyd M. Shansfelt, 61-year-old Belleville operating engineer, succumbing Sept. 5 at the Jewish Hospital, St. Louis. He had been injured 18 days earlier, on Aug. 18, when his auto left Illinois Route Three a mile north of Bypass 66 at Mitchell and struck a tree with its left front end.

His death increased the year's toll to 22, compared to 14 through September 1960. Last year ended with 19 traffic fatalities, but there were 44 here in 1954.

This year's toll so far shows no deaths in January or July, but two in February, two in March, six in April, four in May, six in June, one in August and the one in September.

The nine-month tabulation of 22 was topped only by 31 during the like period in 1954, and by 24 in the first nine months of 1957. There were 22 in January-September 1959 and 1953.

Sky Shield To Ground 75 Planes At Lakeside

"About 75 private, company and training flights will be grounded by Saturday's 12-hour 'Sky Shield' at the Lakeside Airport," Owner Omar Midyett said this week. He was referring to a bulletin issued by Federal Aviation Agency Administrator N. E. Halaby who has announced that all commercial and private flights, as well as non-participating military flights, must be suspended Saturday from noon till midnight (CDT) throughout the United States and Canada because of the North American Air Defense Command exercise.

Midyett said that Lakeside would remain open Saturday so that area people could tour the facilities while all operations are grounded.

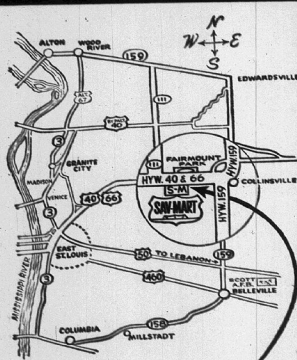

Treated at the hospital at noon Tuesday was Jacqueline Southall, five, of 3287 Westchester drive, who had four stitches to a head laceration after being hit by a ball at school.

Timothy Dillard, four, of 2725 Sunset drive, had two stitches to close a laceration on the bridge of his nose after falling from his bed.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE RESIDENTS OF GRANITE CITY — OUR CUSTOMERS

Friends:

We want to express our sincere thanks for the wonderful response you have given NORGE COIN OPERATED DRY CLEANING. Not only do we appreciate your patronage but your patience and good will will always be remembered.

Now that you have demonstrated your satisfaction with our service we are ready to expand. When we saw the same people return 5 and 6 times and then again and again we knew you were with us. New customers continue to come and we make more and more new friends.

Drive by TRI-WAY NORGE COIN OPERATED LAUNDRY AND DRY CLEANING VILLAGE, 3330 Nameoki Road, and you will see a new addition is being erected. This will house 8 more Norge cleaners. By the end of this month you can be served without waiting.

Norge is the unquestioned leader in coin operated dry cleaning. Granite City had one of the first installations in the country. As the months pass others will enter the field — supposedly. The research and experience that put Norge first will keep it there.

As your Norge representative we are prepared to expand to other locations in the Quad-Cities. We have options for other sites. Your response to our 16 units will determine when there will be 24, 32, etc., one nearer you. We are here to serve you and will do just that.

While in this one location we are so accessible to you — just minutes in your car. This short drive will save you 75% on your dry cleaning.

Do bear with us these next two weeks while we grow. In the mean time continue to come between 8 a.m. and 10 p.m. Monday through Saturday. This is called "self service" and it is, but you will find our cleaning consultants to be the friendliest, most helpful people you ever met in a "self service business."

Most appreciatively yours,

NEW DIRECT DISTANCE DIALING in Service Sunday

Quad-Cities residents will be able to dial their own Long Distance calls direct to more than 6,000 cities

Sunday, October 15, Direct Distance Dialing comes to the Quad-Cities. It will permit telephone customers to dial their Long Distance calls direct to more than 6,000 cities throughout the nation and Canada.

Direct Distance Dialing is a big step forward for the Quad-Cities. It is, in fact, the biggest service improvement since dial telephones were put into operation.

This new Long Distance service makes you feel as if you're in command of the whole nationwide network—and you really are. With just 10 turns of your telephone dial, in 45 seconds or less, your calls zip through to folks living thousands of miles away. How's that for speed? Someone figured out that Direct Distance Dialing is at least 180 times faster than the fastest jet aircraft.

HOW TO PLACE A CALL WITH DIRECT DISTANCE DIALING

There are two basic and easy-to-remember steps to follow in making a direct distance call:

1. Check Your New Directory For Area Code Number.
2. Your new directory contains a list of frequently called cities and a three-figure area code number for each of these cities. For example: the area code for Kansas City is 816.

2. Dial the Area Code for the city you want, then simply dial the phone number just like a local call. To reach Baltimore 1-9900 in Kansas City, you would dial 816 BA 1-9900. (If the city you are calling is not listed, dial "Operator" and ask if the town you wish to reach can be dialed.)

For additional information about Direct Distance Dialing and complete dialing instructions, refer to the information pages in front of your new Directory.

When you place calls to persons who are listed in this directory, the Greater St. Louis Directory and to telephones in Alton, Wood River and Edwardsville, you simply dial the listed number.

CALLS WHICH WILL CONTINUE TO BE HANDLED BY THE OPERATOR

For technical reasons, Direct Distance Dialing will not be available for coin telephone users. They will continue placing their out-of-town calls through the Long Distance operator. Person-to-person, collect and credit card calls also will, as now, be handled by the operator.

Are you still pushing this around?

Are heads on the way out? You see more and more trucks without them these days. Loading makes that used to have them. Must be some reason for this Volkswagen influence. Could it be that a truck is easier to park without that 3 foot proboscis? Or carries more? It does, you know. A VW carries 1,800 lbs. A half-ton carries only—well, half a ton, (1,000 lbs.) Or has elbow room for big box objects? (170 cubic feet—there's enough room for a baby elephant.)

The VW Truck also started something with its big side door. No more climbing in back for everything. Even though we have a door there, too.

The engine is in the rear. (The weight gives your drive wheels extra traction. You hardly ever see a VW stuck.)

The engine's air-cooled. No water to freeze or boil over.

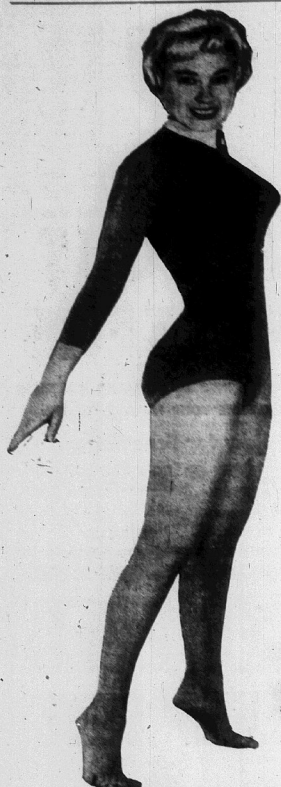

No anti-freeze to buy.

And gas—almost everybody gets over 20 miles a gallon. A few even get 30.

And you're still pushing a load around. For heaven's sake.

Size of GC Police Force Below Median

(This is the 32nd in a series of articles based on a reorganization study of city government in Granite City by Southern Illinois University.)

In continuing its study of the Granite City police department, the SIU team of experts noted the 36-man police force is 10 below the 46 median set by 13 Illinois communities of comparable size.

"It is extremely difficult and not entirely valid to make comparisons among cities since no two cities have the same problems. An industrial city with large minority groups does not have the same problems nor require the same service levels as a suburban residential community of the same population.

"There are certain standards, however, which give an indication of a city's standing in relation to the national average even though the results must be interpreted in the light of local conditions.

"Based upon figures presented in the 1960 Municipal Yearbook (using 1959 data), the national average for police employees per 1000 population in the 35,000 to 50,000 population group was 1.68.

30 Per 1000 Population

Using the 1950 population, Granite City had 1.06 police employees per 1000 and only 30 using the 1960 population of 35,700.

Among the 13 cities in Illinois in the population group, Granite City ranks 11th. Only Kankakee has fewer police employees. The other cities included were Alton, Belleville, Bloomington, Champaign, Danville, Elgin, Galesburg, Moline, Quincy, Rock Island and Waukegan.

"The number of police employees among the 13 departments ranges from 30 to 72. The number of civilian employees ranges from zero to 12, with Subjects covered will include the sales tax broadening measures, the new service occupation tax, and the new state tax forms. A question and answer session will follow the discussion.

The seminar is scheduled for 7:30 p. m. in the YMCA auditorium. While the meeting is open to the public, those planning to attend are asked to contact the Chamber of Commerce Office in advance so that suitable arrangements may be made.

Granite City having none. "Elgin and Rock Island are the highest in police officers with 72 and 70 respectively, and in civilian employees with 12. The median number of police officers for the 13 cities is 46.5.

Ranks 11th In Equipment

"In terms of equipment, Granite City ranks 8th among the 13 cities in the number of four-wheel patrol vehicles with a total of five. The median number for the 13 cities is six.

"Granite City employs one-man cars during the daytime and two-man cars at night. Among the 265 cities in the 25,000 to 50,000 population group reporting in the 1960 Municipal Yearbook, 62.8% use both one- and two-man cars, while 27% use only one-man cars.

"By contrast, only 10.2% still use two-man cars exclusively. Granite City uses two-man patrols on the 9 p.m. to 5 a.m. shift and one-man cars the rest of the time.

Third Quarter Meter, Fine Receipts Up $551

Granite City parking meter receipts and violation fines at the end of the third quarter are up $551 over last year's figure, with $32,392 collected so far in 1961 as compared to $31,841 taken in over the same period last year.

During September, parking meter receipts totaled $2033, with an additional $487 paid into the city treasury in parking fines. Receipts averaged $136 for each of the 26 days of the month on which meter feeding was required for the privilege of parking.

As compared with the same month in 1960, meter receipts for September were down. Last year, $3190 was collected from the meters. Receipts from fines, however, were well up this year when compared to the $108 collected for parking violations last year in September.

Contract Subject of County NFO Meeting

A draft of the proposed master contract between the National Farmers Organization and the nation's farm product processors was discussed at the Madison county NFO chapter meeting Monday night at St. Jacob.

The proposed contract is based on conclusions reached by members during county meetings in September and forwarded to the national headquarters at Corn, Ia.

NFO National President Owen Lee Staley of Rea Mo, has called upon members to be prepared for an all-out holding action at the earliest possible date if processors refuse to bargain through the proposed contract.

Twenty-five members attended the county chapter meeting Monday. A report was given on present soy bean holding action, indicating that more than 20% of the current crop is being held.

Next meeting of the organization is scheduled for Monday night at the home of Ray Iberg, county chairman, near Highland. Plans for a November meeting with the national president as speaker will be discussed.

Widdie, The News Dealer, Honored On Retirement

Simple recognition by those to whom he has long been of service brought mist to the eyes of a 68-year-old Granite City newspaper dealer.

More than 100 employees of the Granite City Steel Co. contributed to a fund for J. "Widdie" Drischel, who had been selling newspapers in front of the Twentieth and Iowa streets gate to the steel plant for 24 years.

In presenting the money, which amounted to a few cents more than $53, Frank Mendenall, who works in the pipe shop at the plant, told him it was offered as an indication of the feelings the workers have for him.

Mendenall was originator of the idea to honor Widdie. "We've always felt like you were one of us," Mendenall said. In a soft, slightly shaking voice, the paper seller offered his thanks. "It's not so much the money, but the way it was given. It makes you feel good to know you've got that many friends."

Widdie, who is no longer at his familiar station at the steel plant entrance, commented: "There will be someone else here from now on."

A Witness To Growth

Drischel began selling newspapers at the very same spot Sept. 8, 1937. The Press-Record sold for three-cents a copy in those days, he said, and was only about 8 or 10 sheets in size. "And Granite City Steel is three or four times bigger than it was then. The first strip mill had just been put up when I started."

Except for times the plant was out on strike, he hasn't missed a day from the job since the beginning. In apparent prime health, he claims he hasn't been to a doctor on account of sickness since he was 14 years old. "Yes, there have been a lot of changes since I started selling newspapers here," Widdie said. "And I've seen a lot of people—a lot of wonderful people—come and go. They've treated me nice, and I appreciate it."

No Protection From Weather

Drischel, who lives at 2828 Warren avenue, came to Granite City in 1928. He was born near Taylorville, also lived in Athens. "I used to have a little hut along the side of the street for shelter during cold and rainy weather," he said. "There's no place for it anymore, and I don't think I could take it through the winter out here in the open."

"I've got my Social Security now, and I think I can get by," Widdie says. It will be a while before he knows what he's going to do now. He did plan to leave Granite City, perhaps moving into a nursing home somewhere.

But he's changed his mind. "I'm going to stay," he said. "Maybe I'll do some fishing."

"I'll miss the job and the people, but I'll come up here once in a while and see them a little."

People Always Buy Papers

Widdie has made his living at his little newsstand, selling the Press-Record and the metropolitan dailies. He says it is surprising how people will always buy newspapers, even in hard times.

He said he has always tried to take care of his job and treat people right, and he believes that the reason he has friends today.

The word for it is... "Masterful!"

"Superb" . . . "luxurious" . . . "beautiful" . . . "brilliant"—there are many words that might be used to describe the new 1962 Cadillac car.

But if we were to select from the Cadillac vocabulary the one word that most completely captures the essence of this latest "car of cars"—we would choose "masterful".

For here is a motor car that has already established its mastery in everything that makes an automobile good and fine and desirable.

In appearance, it is clearly a Cadillac masterpiece—graceful, clean-lined and elegant.

In performance, it is a revelation. Its power plant is a reservoir of silken power—and the car rides and handles with an instinctive ease and sureness. In safety, it is in a class of its own—with a host of exclusive features, including remarkable new side-curtain lights.

In craftsmanship, it is simply without rival. Every 1962 Cadillac will undergo more than 1400 inspections to assure its quality and goodness.

On and on the list could go. But however lengthy, that list could never replace the experience of inspecting the car and driving it.

Your dealer will happily let you do both. Once you have, you'll understand why the word has gone out so quickly that this is the finest motor car ever to bear the Cadillac name.

'Saluki Patrol' Unit At Southwestern Campus

A new unit of the Southern Illinois University Saluki Patrol, staffed by student workers, has been organized to serve the Southwestern Illinois Campus.

Named after the SIU mascot, the patrol will assist in parking, provide visitors information, and issue guest parking permits, as well as checking on outside lights and signs and insuring that entrances to buildings and grounds are open on schedule.

Four students at the East St. Louis Center and three at the Alton Center presently make up the Southwestern unit, with the size to increase as needs for the patrol's services on the campus grow.

Virgil Seymour, SIU assistant to the vice president, said the formation of the new patrol unit provides a much needed service for the Southwestern campus.

Locks Traffic Hits Over Two-Million Ton Mark

Monthly traffic through Chain of Rocks Canal Locks No. 37 remained over the two-million-ton mark for the sixth straight month in September, and the commercial and government tonnage for the first nine months of 1961 stayed well above figures for the same period recorded a year ago.

A report from the district Corps of Engineers office in St. Louis released today indicated that September freight traveling the canal and through the locks totaled 2,223,910 tons. Despite the large amount, the figure was below May, July and August, figures of this year.

This year's month high was recorded in July when 2,418,843 tons passed through the local locks. The nine-month total of 18,013,789 tons is 1,127,038 tons over last year's totals for the same period. Last month's traffic is up 284,409 tons for the same month a year ago.

The total number of vessels using the locking facilities and the September lockages were also above reports from September 1960. There were 3722 vessels requiring 831 lockages, month as compared to 3253 vessels and 740 lockages for the same month last year.

Of the total freight listed for last month, 2,223,300 tons was of a commercial nature and 610 tons, government tonnage. Traffic in tons upstream was 1,285,602 and 937,688 tons went downstream.

Commercial boats passing through the locks in the past month included 727 towboats, two passenger boats, 2394 barges and 94 U.S. contractor boats. Two-hundred and seventy-three private recreational boats used the locking facilities.

U. S. Government traffic included two towboats, 10 barges, nine small craft, three construction boats and eight patrol boats.

A breakdown of tonnage figures by products for the month of September follows:

3 Earn National Merit Scholar Commendations

Three seniors at Granite City high school have been honored for high performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test given last spring. It was announced today that each student who is endorsed by his school receives a formal Letter of Commendation signed by his principal and the president of the National Merit Scholarship Corp.

Principal Lawrence McCauley announced that the commendation students are Karen Kaezel, Robert Maddox and Richard Weiss. Miss Kaezel is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kaezel, 27 Oaklawn drive. Maddox is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Maddox, 2828 Michigan avenue; and Weiss is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Weiss, 61 Riviera drive.

John M. Stalnaker, NMSC president, advised McCauley that "nearly 25,000 students throughout the U.S. are being awarded Letters of Commendation. While they did not reach the status of semifinalists in the 1961-62 merit program, they are so capable that we wish to single them out for special attention. The semifinalists and commended students together constitute less than 2% of all high school seniors."

About 10,000 semifinalists will take a second examination in December to establish further their eligibility to receive merit scholarships. Winners will be named in April.

Sudden Upward Trend In GC Accidents Bewilders Police

Granite City police are bewildered over September's total of 99 auto accidents of all types occurring in their city. The local department predicted 75 auto accidents for September but the final tally was 31 over the month before and second high for the year. January, with its cold snowy conditions, is high with 113 auto accidents reported.

"I can't understand it, arrests were up and the weather conditions were good," remarked a puzzled Raymond "Mike" Ridge, patrolman in charge of the records department. He pointed out that the normal trend is when arrests are up — accidents are down.

Forty-seven injuries occurred as a result of the near-record-breaking total of 99 accidents. Of the 99 mishaps, 78 involved collisions with another motor vehicle, seven ran off the road, six involved pedestrians, five bicycles, two at railroad crossings and one involving a fixed object. There were no fatalities reported.

A breakdown by type of vehicles showed there were 171 cars, four trucks, three taxicabs, three buses, one tractor-trailer and one motorcycle for a total of 183 vehicles. A further breakdown revealed that 160 motorists were involved — 108 males, 39 females, and 13 reports did not state the sex of the persons involved.

Fifty-eight accidents were described as having contributing factors: They were: driving too fast — four accidents, two injuries; failing to yield the right-of-way — 12 accidents, one injury; driving on the wrong side of the road — three accidents, one injury; improper passing — one accident, no injuries; passing a stop sign — two accidents, two injuries; following too close — six accidents, no injuries; improper turn — three accidents, no injuries; other improper driving — 18 accidents, three injuries; inadequate brakes — one accident, one injury; improper lights — one accident, no injuries; and driving after drinking — six accidents, no injuries.

The next meeting of the club is scheduled for Oct. 23 at the Granite City Engineer Depot NCO Club, when team members of the St. Louis football Cardinals will be present. Special guests will be members of the Optimists-sponsored football team in the Granite City park district league.

Elevator Bond Proposal Still Under Study

A qualified counter proposal for purchase of bonds to finance construction of a huge grain elevator at the Chain of Rocks canal harbor is still under consideration by the Bi-State Development Agency.

Col. R. E. Smyser Jr., Bi-State executive director, said the offer has been submitted to the Illinois Grain Corp. for study. The Chicago grain firm, which will operate the elevator under long term lease, must clear qualifications in the proposal.

Smyser said a meeting of the board of directors probably will be called late next week, after the elevator committee has reached a decision and is ready to make a recommendation on the proposal.

The proposal was submitted by the Chicago firm of Crutten-Pedota & Co., representing a syndicate composed of itself, Allan-May & Co. of New York, and Mullany-Wells & Co. of Chicago.

MISS COGAN HONORED AT BRIDAL SHOWER

A bridal shower given for Miss Janice Cogan of Alton was held Sunday afternoon at the Lincoln Place Community Center.

As the guests arrived through a decorated doorway, they were greeted by a three-foot-tall bride and groom on an improvised altar that was decorated with white vases filled with lilies, ferns and ivy. A large wedding bell was suspended over the altar.

Other decorations were white streamers and large bells suspended from the ceiling. The future bride's table had a miniature bride and two bridesmaids carrying flowers and white umbrellas. The other tables held bird baths filled with lilies of the valley and sweet peas, topped with white umbrellas, thimble-size bells and streamers of ribbons.

Games were played, and prizes were given. Refreshments were served to about 50 guests. The decorations were done by Mrs. Mary Bero of Madison, a unit of the prospective groom. Many gifts were received by the bride-to-be.

Miss Cogan is to become the bride of John Bero of Granite City on Nov. 4 at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Alton.

The shower was given by Miss Betty Bero, one of the bridesmaids. The guests were assisted by Miss Mary Ann Horvath, Mrs. Horvath, Mrs. Eisenberg and Mrs. Rehek.

'FAMILY NIGHT' SUPPER AT CHURCH

The Ladies' Auxiliary of St. Gregory the Illuminator Church on Maple street gave its monthly supper at the church basement Sunday night.

Many members and guests were present. The menu was served by Mrs. Nuavart Kachigian and Mrs. Hanum Manogian. After the supper, games were played and many gifts were awarded to the winners. The "family night" will be held on Nov. 4.

Poster By Knipping Wins State Mention

A poster prepared by Carter Knipping, 1612 Primrose avenue, a low senior at Granite City high school, has been accorded honorable mention in state judging of posters dealing with National Employment Council's Handicapped Week.

Word of the honor was received this week by Eugene Alassi, Granite City school art director. Knipping is a member of an advanced art class at GCHS.

The poster, one of several entered by local students in the state contest this fall, has been placed on display in the Tribune Tower in Chicago. Held annually for the past 17 years, the competition is sponsored by the Illinois State Employment Service and the Disabled American Veterans.

Auto, Truck Collide

A collision on Madison avenue at Third street at 7:30 p.m. Sunday damaged the left front of the northbound auto of Albert Lee Jones, 36, of 644 Chouteau avenue, Mitchell. The other vehicle was a Diamond Plating Co. truck driven by a foreman, James H. Ratford, who was turning right from Madison avenue onto Third street.

BASIC ELEMENTS of art are described by Mrs. Edith Maxwell, left, on instructor in the YMCA's "Senior Citizenship" program, conducted each Thursday. Mrs. Maxwell will assist Mrs. Carl Fuller in instructing participants in charcoal drawing and oil painting, and instruction will also be given in ceramics to Quad-City residents 50 years of age or over.

Scouts Need More Adult Help, Kiwanians Told

More adult leaders are needed in the Boy Scout program, District BSA Council Chairman George Walters told the Granite City Kiwanis Club Monday night.

Walters, who is in the personnel department at General Steel Industries, Inc., said 35% of the local boys eligible are active in the scout program, which is well above the national average. He said that figure could be raised to 50%, however, if enough adult leadership was available.

Speaking at the regular weekly Kiwanis dinner meeting, Walters explained how the district council of which he is chairman represents five scout districts, including the Univac district. Two local Kiwanis members also are on the council — Ben Miller Jr. is district commissioner, and Allen Jessee is vice-chairman.

Walters said half of the district council's finances and scout membership come from the Univac district, as does about 40% of the activities.

Before Walters was introduced as speaker for the evening, Roy Graham and Marvin Barnes described the organization of the Granite City Kiwanis club 20 years ago. World War II interrupted, they said, and the club was re-organized soon after the war's end.

Historical Society Meeting On Oct. 22

A biography of an early Illinois leader from Madison county, Congressman Daniel Cook, for whom Cook county was named, will be presented by a Chicago business executive at a meeting of the Madison County Historical Society on Sunday, Oct. 22, at Triad high school on U.S. Highway 40 near Troy.

The speaker will be Richard Nelson, executive of Inland Steel Co., who makes a hobby of Illinois history. The meeting begins at 2:30 p. m. Another feature will be a privately-owned display of Civil War flags shown by Julian Valtelle of Edwardsville.

Trivine Dillard of Collinsville is president of the county society.

Rollo Winters Named To State Position

Rollo D. Winters, member of the Granite City board of Fire and Police Commissioners and proprietor of Winters' confectionery, 21st street and Delmar avenue, has been named to a state position as field registrar for the state department of education and registration. It was learned here this week.

Winters said the salary paid carries the duties of inspecting all drug stores in Madison and St. Clair counties, and that his appointment was made by Sylvester White, director of the state department at Springfield. The estimated 155-200 drug stores in the two counties will be inspected for state licenses, compliance with state laws, such as those controlling the sale of poisons, and for a registered pharmacist to be on duty at all times.

Winters, who has had 20 years experience managing a drug store and presently the confectionery, said he will devote part of each day to his new duties. He resides at 2524 Adams street.

TELEPHONE TALK

by George Mauze, Mgr., Granite City, Illinois

IT'S ON ITS WAY

In just three days all one and two party telephone customers will be able to place directly dialed long distance calls. In other words you will be able to dial across the nation with the ease that you now dial your next door neighbor. It's easier and faster to use direct distance dialing. And what is more, this newest step forward in communications is provided at no extra cost to you, the customer.

HOW CHILDREN LEARN TO USE THE PHONE

Have you ever noticed how long a child — especially, a little one — will amuse himself or herself with a toy telephone? The boys seem to enjoy dialing and hearing the bell ring. Little girls go for long "make-believe" conversations with their "dress-up" friends.

Perhaps this occurs because using the telephone has become as commonplace in our everyday living as eating, sleeping and breathing. Because of its importance in the home and business, leading educators have helped us develop teaching aids to help youngsters use the telephone correctly.

These training devices are available to all schools in the Quad-City area at no cost to the schools.

For elementary students, we provide a training kit called Telezonia. It is especially designed for use in the fourth and fifth grades. This kit features a 16-mm color motion picture, "Adventure in Telezonia," a 34mm color film-strip, two telephones, local directories, and instruction guides for teachers and pupils.

To help high school students improve their telephoning skills and business techniques, a tested teaching program called Teletraining was developed. In addition to a teachers' manual and student material the program includes a Teletrainer. This device provides an equipment box with a built-in amplifier and loud-speaker to which two phones are connected, and with which the various telephone sounds can be simulated and practice connections can be made by the students.

Day by day, using the telephone properly in business and social situations becomes more important and valuable to our young people. Telezonia kits and Teletraining Program may be obtained for schools by calling the telephone business office, Glenview 2-9800.

TO EACH HER OWN PRINCESS

You'll be hearing that phrase quite a bit this month (perhaps you've already heard it or read it in telephone company ads). What does it mean to you?

Well, if you're a member of the fair sex, it can mean the added convenience, security and peace-of-mind you enjoy with a Princess telephone next to your bed. Or it can mean less wear and tear on you if the Princess phone is near at hand during the day. If you're a teen-age princess, a Princess phone in your room can mean a special kind of privacy when you talk with your very special friends.

If you're not a member of the fair sex, "To each her own Princess" is a timely reminder that can make you a hero with the ladies in your home. All you have to do is surprise the lady with a Princess phone of her own. Just call the telephone business office and we'll see that she gets it installed where it pleases her most — and in the color she likes best.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

McKinley Traffic During Past Year Tops 4,132,000

McKinley Bridge traffic reached a record-breaking 4,132,000 during the 1960-61 fiscal year just ended, an annual report by Bridge Manager Henry McMullen, disclosed this week.

Counting 2,978,215 crossings in the abbreviated 1959-60 year of 1958-59 and 3,971,879 last year, vehicles numbering 11,282,354 have used the bridge since it was purchased by the city of Venice Nov. 21, 1948.

The 4,132,000 level was reached with a spurt in traffic in the last half of the year, presumably due to further improvement of the bridge and to the opening of connecting links with the Mark Twain Interstate route on the Missouri side.

Traffic had reached only 1,096,618 after six months—343,002 in October 1960, 329,277 in November, 333,902 in December, 316,063 in January 1961, 285,339 in February and 348,625 in March. But the tempo increased with 2,175,742 crossings between April and September.

334,575 in April, 335,643 in May, 330,445 in June, 333,984 in July, 304,637 in August and 375,138 in September.

The 375,138 tally for last month was not a record, nor was its 12,504 daily average for 30 days. The current high marks are the 394,657 August tabulation and 12,731 daily average.

90,000 Vehicles in Week
But September saw a weekly record set, with 90,541 vehicles counted on Sept. 22-28. Previous high was 89,329 on Aug. 22-28.

The past month's statistics include 82,157 vehicles on Sept. 1-7, 87,799 on Sept. 8-14, 89,138 on Sept. 15-21, the 90,541 on the fourth week and 25,503 for the last two days of the month.

Though traffic showed an increase over the second year of city operation of the bridge, city profits declined slightly, from $79,848 to $79,165. This is because of the basic expense was deferred from the first two years, during which remodeling of the bridge was to be completed. The improvements currently are in their final stages.

A year ago Mayor John F. Lee said traffic totaling 4,000,000 would be necessary in the third year if the city was to meet all its bridge obligations and also develop a surplus. The goal was not surpassed, but is projected at higher and higher levels in future years on the bridge's traffic and financial charts.

Final Payment on Loan
The size of the latest check to the city will enable the final payment to be made on a $19,522 loan obtained from the Illinois Terminal Railroad, previous bridge owner, on the day of the purchase.

The transaction had been delayed one month until the Interstate Commerce Commission was satisfied that 11 bridge employees would receive satisfactory settlements, and the funds were needed to meet insurance. Series A bond principal and replacement and improvement fund obligations. The delay in acquisition reduced the anticipated total income.

The city repaid $6717 from its first-year bridge proceeds of $33,588 and $23,854 from the second payment of $78,848. This leaves $15,150 to be deducted from the latest installment of $79,165.

Corey Gets QB Opportunity Tonight As Granite City Hosts Wood River

Larry Corey, most often seen at an end position, will get a chance tonight at quarterback when Granite City's Warriors (2-1-1), seek their second Southwestern conference football victory here against the Wood River Oilers.

Corey, a left-handed passer who logged several minutes of signal-calling time in the season opener against Assumption, probably will get the call ahead of the regular 1-2 quarterbacks, Juniors Bill Lloren and Larry Noblin, as Coach Andy Sullivan attempts to come up with a solution to the "fumble" which has plagued the Warrior backfield.

Sophomore Ron Yates most likely will move up to fill Corey's vacant left end position on the Redmen's first offensive unit, Sullivan said today.

"We fumbled the ball six times in our backfield on the snap from center against the Oilers," Sullivan pointed out. "While the game we got from our defensive line, we should have won that game (a 12-12 tie)."

Oilers Winless In SWC
Playing the first of two successive Thursday evening home games, the Warriors tonight will be up against an Orv Vucan-coached club which is still looking for its first conference victory.

Last Friday, the Oilers were beaten in their homecoming game by Belleville, 27-6, in a contest which was interrupted several times by flying fists. It was finally called complete with 40 seconds remaining when officials feared the situation was getting out of hand, after both benches had milled onto the field for the third time.

And, speaking of Wood River homecomings, a year ago the Oilers hosted Granite City in the annual affair and pulled off a 6-0 upset which relegated the Warriors to the Southwestern conference basement.

Granite City's rugged interior line will outweigh its counterpart tonight by some 14 pounds per man.

But weight is not everything, as is witnessed by 162-pound Bill Boyd's successful climb to the first offensive unit at right tackle. His relative lightness pulls down the GC average considerably.

King, Petroff Return
The Warrior camp was strengthened with the return from the injured list this week of Center Bob King and Fullback Dennis Petroff, but End Jerry Siers, with a body bruised knee, was not in pads for practice and probably will not play tonight.

Charlie Haug, whose play at linebacker is a joy to watch when the Warriors are on defense is sufficiently recuperated from bruises to start the starting fullback assignment tonight.

East St. Louis is at Edwardsville for another conference game tonight, and tomorrow evening Collinsville will play at Belleville at 8:30.

Halfback Laid Out
Despite the one-sided loss to the Maroons, the Oilers are physically healthy, Yocum said today. The only change he plans tonight is one of necessity: Lowell Brown will run at left half in place of the injured Sam Ladd, who twisted a knee last week and probably is out for the season.

Favored Trojans Entertain Bethalto Tonight

Superstitious?
May be so. At any rate Madison entertains Bethalto tonight instead of tomorrow — Friday the 13th — as was originally scheduled. The game date was changed shortly after the schedules were released because of teachers' meetings and dismissal of school today and tomorrow.

Madison's Trojans, who are a re-vetting stop the MWC pack with an unblemished 3-0 mark, will be facing the last-place Eagles of Bethalto, 0-3 in loop play and 0-4 in the season. The Trojans are 2-1 overall.

Despite an unimpressive record, Coach Cliff Hoppe's Eagles have shown signs of a winning effort against Roxana and Cahokia. Bethalto battled Roxana on even terms till the last 25 seconds of the game, when the Shells scored on a pass play to win 6-0.

Against Cahokia, a team that fell to Madison 20-0, Bethalto was with striking distance until the final quarter. The Eagles trailed 12-8 until the final minutes, when Coach Hoppe pushed across another score to win the game, 18-8.

4 Ends Injured
Hoppe's biggest problem is injuries. The Eagles have at least five veterans on the sidelines.

Kids Kidd, a standout on defense in the guard slot, is out with a head injury. Dawson Cooper, an end with two years of varsity competition is nursing a knee injury. Bill Bowman and Tom Williams, two more ends, also are out of action. Bowman has an injured ankle and knee, and Williams, a converted fullback, is suffering from internal injuries. The latest injury occurred during Monday night's practice — Dennis Hays, an other end, broke his wrist. "Our biggest problem will be over-confidence," reports Madison Coach Glen "Pick" Pickering. His Trojans have upset Bethalto and Dupo. Not only did they beat the two MWC schools, but they blanked them 20-0 and 18-0, respectively.

No Changes Needed
"When they play like that, you don't make any changes," explained Pickering, when asked if there would be any lineup changes for tonight's contest. Bethalto will start Andrew Augustine and Jack Gonzales at end-halfback. Sam Knight, a converted fullback, is a 230-pounder, will hold the tackle positions, and Mike Bristol and Paul Corcoran will fill the guard slots. Maurice Sheff is at center.

Quarterback Ed Wanick directs the Eagles' single-wing attack with the team's leading ground-gainer, Roy Taylor, running from the left halfback position. Sophomores Tom Erwin and Kenny Allison start at right half and fullback. Madison won last year's conference, 27-0. Seaboard Ken Griggs scored 14 points for the Trojans in the game. "I just don't see how we can contain Griggs and Ed (Pick) Pickering," Hoppe said. "They are two of the finest backs in the conference if not the area."

Game time tonight is at 8 o'clock at the Madison High school football field.

'Pick' Praises Andrews, Venarsky For Their Part In Madison's Win

"Finest game they've played," declared Madison Coach Glen "Pick" Pickering in selecting Fullback Terry Andrews and Linebacker Charlie Venarsky as the individual stars in Friday night's 18-0 win over Dupo's Tigers.

Andrews, who plays in the shadows of Seaboard Ken Griggs and Ed Petty, kept the Dupo defense honest all night long, the above situation of series of plays more or less describes Dupo's "success" on offense against the Trojans. Whenever the Tigers started crowding the ends in anticipation of Griggs or Petty carrying the ball, Quarterback Mick Griggs sent Andrews up the middle.

On the second offensive play of the game for the Trojans, Andrews crashed through the center of the line and romped 44 yards for a touchdown. Madison had gained possession of the ball with the aid of Venarsky's alert defensive play from his middle linebacker position and interception by teammate Richie Hamilton.

Force Tigers To Kick
Following Madison's early score, the Trojans kicked off and Dupo returned the ball to their own 35-yard line. The Tigers tried one pass which fell incomplete.

It was a tough decision picking the second lineman," Sullivan said. "They all played well, and when you consider that they (Alton) had the ball about two-thirds of the game it makes singling out two players that much harder."

It was the Warrior defensive line — from tackle to tackle — which staged a last-ditch stand inside its own 10-yard line and held for four downs in the final minute of play, twice stopping Alton backs on the two.

Titsworth, French Led GC Defensive Platoon In Containing Alton Attack

Granite City's football Warriors, in tying Alton 12-12 last Friday, had their own "Mr. Inside" and "Mr. Outside," popular nicknames for a couple of Army backs named Blanchard and Davis of a decade ago, but the titles were applied in this case to stellar defensive play.

Or so GC's football Coach Andy Sullivan felt this week as he named two defensive standouts, Terry Titsworth and Terry French, as the linemen of the week after watching their play against the Redbirds.

French, a 150-pound junior, realized the defenseman's dream last week and capitalized on one of the rare scoring opportunities which a defensive end comes by. He fell on a blocked punt in the Alton end zone to get the Warriors off and winning with less than two minutes elapsed on the scoreboard clock.

Then, early in the third period, he caught speedster Terry Mitchell from behind with a desperate ankle tackle to prevent the punt return specialist from going for the end zone.

'Claude' Sees Wins For GC And Madison

Granite City and Madison high school football teams have finally made a believer of Claude the Computer, at least for this week.

In two disastrous (for Claude's accuracy average) weeks of predicting the outcome of area games, the electronic marvel snubbed the Crusaders and Trojans. But tonight he sees them in winning form against Wood River and Bethalto, respectively.

Last week's prediction tape, as turned out by Claude, had only six of the 11 games picked correctly, and dragged his percentage down to a so-so 574, with 31 correct selections in 46 games considered during the first four weeks of the season.

Claude, who accompanied today's picks with a bit of editorial comment to the effect that he hopes the favorites won't have the reverse effect on the two local prep teams, sees three cliff-hangers this weekend in the Alton-Parkview scrap, the Assumption-Lincoln game in East St. Louis, and at Cahokia, where the Comanches battle a much-improved Highland eleven.

'Top 20' Still Led By Petty; Sauget 2nd

Consistent-scoring Ed Petty of Madison continues to lead the area prep football point parade this week. The hard-charging Trojan half-back scored twice in Madison's 18-0 win over Dupo last Friday, boosting his total to 43 points in four games.

Close behind are two members of Belleville Cathedral's undefeated Crusaders. Rich Sauget has accounted for 36 points and teammate Larry Mauch for 35.

In all, 20 area players are now members of the "three touch-down club," and several new faces appear in the list of top scorers this week.

Fourth and fifth in the scoring race are Paul Ritter of Wood River (32 points), and Belleville's Bob Engelbreton with 31.

NEW DIRECT DISTANCE DIALING in Service Sunday

Quad-Cities residents will be able to dial their own Long Distance calls direct to more than 6,000 cities

Sunday, October 15, Direct Distance Dialing comes to the Quad-Cities. It will permit telephone customers to dial their Long Distance calls direct to more than 6,000 cities throughout the nation and Canada.

Direct Distance Dialing is a big step forward for the Quad-Cities. It is, in fact, the biggest service improvement since dial telephones were put into operation.

This new Long Distance service makes you feel as if you're in command of the whole nationwide network—and you really are. With just 10 turns of your telephone dial, in 45 seconds or less, your calls zip through to folks living thousands of miles away. How's that for speed? Someone figured out that Direct Distance Dialing is at least 180 times faster than the fastest jet aircraft.

HOW TO PLACE A CALL WITH DIRECT DISTANCE DIALING

There are two basic and easy-to-remember steps to follow in making a direct distance call:

1. Check Your New Directory For Area Code Number.
2. Your new directory contains a list of frequently called cities and a three-figure area code number for each of these cities. For example: the area code for Kansas City is 816.

2. Dial the Area Code for the city you want, then simply dial the phone number just like a local call. To reach Baltimore 1-9900 in Kansas City, you would dial 816 BA 1-9900. (If the city you are calling is not listed, dial "Operator" and ask if the town you wish to reach can be dialed.)

For additional information about Direct Distance Dialing and complete dialing instructions, refer to the information pages in front of your new Directory.

When you place calls to persons who are listed in this directory, the Greater St. Louis Directory and to telephones in Alton, Wood River and Edwardsville, you simply dial the listed number.

CALLS WHICH WILL CONTINUE TO BE HANDLED BY THE OPERATOR

For technical reasons, Direct Distance Dialing will not be available for coin telephone users. They will continue placing their out-of-town calls through the Long Distance operator. Person-to-person, collect and credit card calls also will, as now, be handled by the operator.

LAWYERS MUST ABIDE BY STRICT RULES OF CONDUCT

From time immemorial, unethical practices are hurled against the legal profession. Most of us realize, however, that the guinea pig among the few who bring criticism against the entire profession, but many non-lawyers are not aware of the strict rules of conduct imposed upon attorneys by what are known as the "Supreme Court of Professional Ethics."

The Illinois State Bar Association has canons of ethics which the members must observe or risk being expelled from the association. And all Illinois lawyers are subject to rules of proper conduct enforced by the association's ethics committee. The codes of ethics are policed and enforced largely by the lawyers, themselves and violation of them may lead to disbarment or suspension from practice.

Let us consider several of the more significant canons of the Illinois State Bar Association and the reader may appreciate the framework within which the lawyer is supposed to conduct his practice.

Influencing Decision

A lawyer is not allowed to attempt to exert personal influence on a court, and may not approach a judge outside of the courtroom for the purpose of getting the judge's views, or influencing his opinion, on matters before him in a pending case.

Defense of Criminals

It is the right of the lawyer to undertake the defense of the accused, so that innocent persons, victims only of suspicious circumstances, are not denied a proper defense. If the lawyer refuses to defend them, he is thought guilty, he would be acting as judge and jury before the trial.

Further, having agreed to defend the accused, the lawyer is bound to utilize, by fair means, all defenses which are available to the accused. On the other hand, the public prosecutor's primary concern is not to convict the accused, but rather to see that justice is done. Consequently, he may be duty-bound to aid the accused.

Conflicting Interests

A lawyer may not represent two or more parties in the same matter if the interests of one party conflict with the interests of the other, unless he explains the situation to all parties involved, and obtains their consent. In addition, the lawyer must continue in the matter in their attorney. A lawyer may not represent a client in a matter which would require him to divulge or make use of information which was revealed to him in confidence by a former client.

Confidential Information

Confidential information gained by the lawyer, even of greater importance to the preservation of the dignity of the legal profession, than that which requires a lawyer to guard scrupulously the facts revealed to him in confidence by his client. Neither he nor his employees may disclose this information to gain a financial advantage or to cause embarrassment and even though the lawyer may be asked to do so, he is excused. He may not be forced to testify in court as to confidential disclosures, unless the client consents.

Fixing Fees

Illinois lawyers are admonished by their Canons against charging more than their usual fee because the client is able to pay at a higher rate. Nevertheless, every lawyer is expected to reduce his normal fee if the client cannot afford to pay it. Fees are generally based on such considerations as time spent, the nature of the problem involved and the results obtained for the client.

Best Employer Conduct

The rules described above do not constitute the entire Canons of the Illinois State Bar Association, but they are representative of the type of ethical obligations which a lawyer is bound to observe. Of course, there are a small minority of lawyers who are not bound by these rules, whose conduct brings the entire legal profession into disrepute. Improper conduct should be the accused if he learns of facts or witnesses which establish his innocence.

Madison County Farm Adviser

By Truman W. May,
Madison County Farm Adviser

This year's bumper corn crop is causing some storage problems on some farms, although for the past several years many farmers have been increasing their storage capacity so that they can crib or bin their grain and participate in the federal stockpiling program.

Corn acreage in Madison county is down as much as 20% from some communities because of participation in the federal feed grain program, but yields per acre are expected to set a record. High record yields may mean that there will be large.

Corn and other grains are abundant on the farm lands, and sold directly from fields at the best time for several reasons such as hedging (or better price) than the market.

ported to the state or local association as to proper handling of the grain to investigate to charge and, if necessary, impose punishment.

A refresher course for notaries public, the first of its kind in Illinois, was held at the Rialto restaurant yesterday afternoon under the direction of Luther Budder, representing the office of the secretary of agriculture of the Granite County Real Estate Board, the two-hour session covered such items as the duties of a notary, oaths, affidavits of title, chauffeurs' operator's license renewals, tax, estate title services, sales tax involving Missouri and Illinois automobile purchases.

Forty guests were present, and the course, which began with a noon luncheon.

Budder, who has been a representative of Illinois Secretary of State Charles P. Carpenter for eight years as automobile investigation supervisor for District 2, a locality area including Madison County.

A complete report on the course has been forwarded to Courier's office.

the structure of the... from the minimum participation and from putting more of his wheat allotment into conservation uses.

Extension farm management specialist R. B. Schwartz believes it will make very little difference in Illinois farmers' income whether they divert 10% of their wheat acreage or a larger amount. On most farms the land not used for wheat could be planted to soybeans or corn.

More farmers have been installing soil conservation during the favorable fall season, in cooperation with the Soil Conservation Service.

Grass waterways have recently been completed by Fred Dietz, Glenn Reichmann, Vernon Helmkamp, Oliver Berg, Edwin Goodwin, Carl Ursprung, Dan Kuhn, Albert Brandt, George Dugger and Robert Vogel.

Farm ponds have been built by Charles Drelin, John Bruckmann, Raymond Stalshoch and Albert Brandt. Soil-saving structures have been installed by Albert Owens, Delmar Moffett, Louis Wimmers and Fred Dietz. Drainage ditches have been built by Walter Steiner, Lullie Prance, Clarence Schien and Oscar Noelner.

SOME OF HARROW

Koshe, Oliver Spire, Waldo Kneibach, C. C. Becker & Son, Rocky Rutin, Arthur Braunstein, Ray Winter, Norman Jensen and Eugene Meffert.

Save both time and money by putting your own picker into good shape before harvest. What's more, a picker that does a good job without excessive chugging won't tempt you to try to clean it while it's running. Start by checking the rubbing blanket and snapping and husking ribs for wear.

Directors of the Madison County Harvest Club met last week to plan several club activities. The annual meeting of the club will be held the evening of Oct. 30. The club will be host to the annual meeting of the Illinois No-till Farm Association at Altam Dec. 8-9.

Circulars on home stacking for food supplies for survival may be obtained at the farm advisers' office.

There seems to be much interest in the new wheat stabilizer program. More than 200 farmers attended a county meeting last week to hear it explained. Although most men and women farmers are interested, other information have been mailed to all wheat farmers and landowners by the county ASD office.

The wheat variety test plot is being planted again this year by James Wint of Saline township, on the Highland-Granville road.
